

We are pleased to announce that the acquisition of Adams Rite Manufacturing Co. by ASSA ABLOY is now complete, following regulatory clearance.

In the UK, Adams Rite Europe Limited are the market leaders in locking solutions for the commercial aluminum door market. This innovative company has successfully extended its product and market presence into high security locking, electric locking, specialist hinges and exit hardware for commercial applications. The Safeguard range of specialist high security doors completes the product portfolio.

The acquisition of Adams Rite re-enforces ASSA ABLOY's commitment to strengthening its leadership position through strategic acquisitions that complement and enhance current market and product capabilities.

ASSA ABLOY UK welcomes Adams Rite Europe Ltd into the ASSA ABLOY Group, and can confirm that all existing contact points with Adams Rite in the UK remain unchanged.
